After School Walking Buses

When the appropriate bell goes, children are dismissed and line up under the shade structure in the main courtyard

2.20 Bell:

- for children who walk out the back gate to Halberg/Snell Drive and
- children who walk to Tramway Rd, Tramway under pass.

Children are escorted by a duty teacher.

2.30 Bell:

- All Insoll Ave walkers line up and are escorted out of school by a duty teacher.
- Children being picked up wait for parents to collect them – wait area is at the front of the school by the gate under the classroom eaves.

Free Ear Van

The free mobile ear van will be at school on Thursday 25 February for the day. This is a good opportunity for your children to get their ears checked. Pre-schoolers are also welcome.

First Credit Union School Banking

Getting started is easy – just pick up an application pack from the school office, fill in the application form and return it to the school office.

School banking will be collected on Thursday each week.

Every deposit made between 16 February and 9 April puts them in the draw to win 1 of 3 bikes.

Top Town

The children enjoyed a fun day of "Top Town" last Thursday.

COMMUNITY NOTICES

Eastern Pathways/Te Ara o te Rawhiti Transport Project

This project will look at how to make it safer and easier for our students, parents and those who travel along Hukanui Road/Peachgrove Road, and Clyde Street/Knighton Road to get to school, home and around east Hamilton to shops, community facilities medical centres and other amenities. Hamilton City Council are wanting your say on the design approach, your feedback will inform the selected design put forward for funding support from Waka Kotahi/NZ Transport Agency. Go and have your say, feedback closes on Thursday 4 March at 5pm.
